Street Paving Project Awaits Court Decision

CITY OFFICIALS are still awaiting the State Supreme Court decision on their bond validation case which was heard by the Court on Tuesday, January 21. Sitting at the hearing were Chief Justice W. N. Etheridge, Jr., presiding judge, and Justices L. A. Smith, Jr., Neville Patterson, William Inzer, and Stokes Robinson. Mayor John Scarife, who went to Jackson to hear the arguments, says he is reasonably confident that the decision will be rendered within the next week or ten days.

The case is an appeal on a ruling by Chancellor William G. Hewes on the City Council's petition for validation of $780,000 bonds for the Bay St. Louis street paving program. The bonds meanwhile had been bought by the First National Bank of Memphis, which has been unable to take them until the validation controversy is settled. Bank spokesmen, however, say the bank continues to be willing to "go along" with Bay St. Louis City officials until the Supreme Court decision has been handed down, according to Commissioner J. Cyril Glover.

In other matters taken up at its Monday meeting, the Council directed Commissioner Cyril Glover to proceed with advertisements for bids for 20 and one-half, 1 and one-half, and 1-inch fire hoses. Bids will be opened Monday, Feb. 10, at 10:00 a.m.

Negotiations for a radio equipment maintenance contract with Burklin's TV and Appliance Service were postponed until Guy Burklin, who was ill, could be present. Burklin has been certified by the Federal Communications Commission, and presently does similar work for the county.

Plans will be submitted soon, announced Mayor John Scarife, for re-organization of the police auxiliary and strengthening of the fire department auxiliary in Bay St. Louis. Basis of the planning is a study that has been made of efficiently working departments in Pass Christian and Biloxi.

City surveyor Frank Wheat's survey indicates that

Washington Road and Esterbrook Street were discussed. Virgil Morrison of the State Highway Department has been contacted on the latter situations and is expected to make provisions for correcting matters soon. City resources will be utilized in providing relief for West Bay.

Bert Steffel appeared before the council to request consideration of a non-paid civil defense coordinator within the

Two Armed Robbers Hit Holiday Sands

Pulling .38 and .45-caliber pistols after admission into the office about 3:40 a.m. Wednesday, two white, unmasked, ungloved gunmen held up the Holiday Sands Motel on U.S. 90. With about $300 cash and a key ring as the loot, the bandits removed all telephone speakers they could find, and left the Sylvester Joe, Jr., family visibly shaken, but physically unarmed.

The men rang the night buzzer, according to Mrs. Willie Mae Joe, wife of motel manager, Sylvester Joe, Jr., and asked for a room when she went to the door. As she extended the motel registration form, Mrs. Joe found the muzzle of a pistol at her head. In reply to her cry of "Oh-h-h," Mrs. Joe said she was told, "Shut up, . . . or I'll kill you," and she was compelled to give the key to the room. She would reluctantly hand over the key to the men, who then forced her to go to the office to get money.

Children, one of whom roused during the episode.

Mrs. Joe said her husband had attempted to get upstairs to get gun after he saw what Krewe of Nereids and guests, at the third annual ball Saturday night at St. Joseph Memorial Hall.

Henry Develle, Jr. Reigns Over Gala Nereids' Ball

Henry Develle, Jr. ruled as king at Krewe of Nereids third annual Bal Masque depicting Carnival in Rio, at their gala fete Saturday, Jan. 25, at St. Joseph Memorial Hall. One hundred Waveland women worked all year to present this spectacular ball.

The captain's whistle, followed by fanfare, signaled the beginning of a pageant of mardi Gras' many amid merrymaking and make believe. After presentation of last year's court, re-calling the theme of that year, Era of Laughter, the spotlight turned on krewe members in their brilliant costumes representing famous characters, funny creatures and memorable sights seen on the streets of Rio at Carnival.

The lieutenants of Nereids formed an honor guard for the officers and captain, who swept forth in symbolic splendor. As this ball was a re-creation of the fabulous costume ball at the Copacabana Palace Hotel in Rio, the maids portrayed contestants in this ball, vying for prizes. The ancient splendor and wonder of the mysteries of the east came to life in the vivid re-creation of the maid from Siam. The days of reigning royalty and majestic monarchy were depicted in the symbolic costume of the Maid representing British Royalty.

Reminding of the beauty that over-powered all men she met and the special fascination that was like a lure that drew lovers to her throne, came the Queen of the Nile - Cleopatra. The magnificent beauty of the exotic east again came to life in the vivid portrayal of Oriental splendor - the Japanese Princess. The antiquity of Russia was re-created in the splendor before the revolution - Russian Royalty. Flickering gas lamps of the 1800's were regaled with a sparkle and a glow of the century beauty - Lillian Russell.

The topic of stringent subdivision regulations arose when Lucien Carmichael, local realtor, stated that present rules requiring paved streets, gutters, sewerage facilities, etc., were lowering values on land, especially in rural areas. Carmichael said that while he realized the supervisors had inherited mistakes of the old board, prospective investors were buying elsewhere.

Further action on the matter was postponed until the next meeting on Monday, Feb. 3, after Dolph Kellar, Beat 3 supervisor, commented that they did not want to take a chance on holding an illegal election.

Attorney J. H. Benvenuti was instructed to make a thorough check on the 1968 legislative amendment regarding the law, before the board would proceed about a date for a public hearing about an election.

Board President Russell Elliott read the report which stated that the commission had met and examined voter registrations on January 9, 13 and 16, finding that the number of signatures was in excess of the 860 required by law to bring about an election.

SHIP 366 is docked near Bordage Brothers' Camp on Bayou Caddy. The camp donated the parking space complimentary to the Sea Scouts.

Local Sea Scouts Boost Own Ship

By Dec Elliott

Sea Explorer Ship No. 366 was originally formed in Waveland to offer to the interested youth of that community between the ages of 14 to 17 and one-half years the opportunity to participate in the Sea Scouting program. Boys anticipating a tour of duty in the Navy will find the promotional requirements of sea scouting a great assistance in obtaining a good rating.

Ship 366 has recently acquired a 30 foot boat, powered with twin General Motors 6-71 Diesel Engines. Operating at full speed this boat will go 25 M.P.H.

Plans for the future call for boat trips to near-by points of interest, also fishing trips. Activities of the ship are decided by the scouts themselves, who actually run the crew through their own elected officers.

Adult leaders are, Joe Griffin, skipper; John Stack mate; Lawrence Hill, of Ship 101 of New Orleans, La., consultant. Committeemen of the troop are: Wiley Cole, Sr., Wiley

Price, L.S. (Dec) Elliott and Hap Carter.

C.O. Dufour, is institutional representative, while J.B. Fleuret, president of Jaycat Corporation of New Orleans, La., is sponsor of the ship.

Present active members of ship 366 are:

Wiley Cole, Jr., boatswain; David Whitman, purser; Fred Stack, Jack Collins, Paul Clark and skipper Troy.

Members will be limited to 10 Sea Explorers. Anyone desiring to join can contact Mr. Joe Griffin, phone 467-7132 or any of the above committeemen.

New Seats Donated To Little Theater

Edward I. Jones, local attorney, last week presented to the Bay St. Louis Little Theater all of the seats which had been removed from the former A & G Theater on North Beach. These very comfortable and attractive seats will be used to replace the badly worn ones now in use at the Little Theater.

Through the cooperation of another Bay St. Louis attorney, Joseph Bonvenuti, the seats will be temporarily stored in his building on South Beach, formerly the George di Benedetto Television Service.

Thanks to the kindness of those two civic-minded citizens, audience enjoyment of future Little Theater productions will be considerably heightened.

Susie Paul is Bay High's Homemaker of Tomorrow

Susie Paul has been named 1969 Betty Crocker Homemaker of Tomorrow for Bay Senior High School on the basis of her score in a written knowledge and attitude test on homemaking given senior girls here December 8.

Susie is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Paul of Blue Meadow Road and entered the Bay Municipal School district as a student in the sixth grade at North Bay Elementary. The Paul family moved to Bay St. Louis from Oak Ridge, Tenn.

She was a member of the Tiger band in the 10th and 11th grades; is on the staff of the Student Prints; active in the 4-H Club, the French Club, was president of the F.H.A. in her freshman year and is vice-president of the Library Club. Susie also belongs to the High School Garden Club, Science Club, Junior Red Cross and works with the Teenage Program for the March of Dimes.

After graduating from Bay High, she plans to enter the University of Southern Mississippi in Hattiesburg, where she will major in English literature and minor in journalism. The 1969 Miss Homemaker plans to make a career of teaching and writing professionally.

Susie's achievement has made her eligible for state and national scholarships. She also has been awarded a specially designed silver charm from General Mills, sponsor of the Betty Crocker Search for the American Homemaker of Tomorrow.

A state Homemaker of Tomorrow and runner-up will be selected from the winners of the schools in the state. The state winner will receive a $1,500 college scholarship, and her school will be awarded a complete set of the Encyclopedia Britannica by Encyclopaedia Britannica, Inc. The runner-up will earn a $500 educational grant.

The Betty Crocker Homemaker of Tomorrow from this state, together with those from all other states and the District of Columbia, each accompanied by a school advisor, will join in an expense paid educational tour of Washington, D.C., and Colonial Williamsburg, Va., next spring.

The national winner—the 1969 All-American Homemaker of Tomorrow—will be announced at an American Table dinner in Williamsburg. The choice will be on the basis of her original test score plus personal observation and interviews during the tour, and her scholarship will be increased to $5,000. Second, third, and fourth ranking Homemakers of Tomorrow in the nation will have their original scholarship grants increased to $4,000, $3,000, and $2,000, respectively.

This is the 13th year of the Betty Crocker Search, initiated in 1954-55 by General Mills to emphasize the importance of homemaking as a career. More than six million senior girls have participated in the Search program since its inception, and 1,480 winners will have earned scholarships totaling $1,591,500 at the conclusion of the current program.

The 630,564 girls from 15,118 schools registering for the 1969 Betty Crocker Search established a new record for the program.

Marriage Licenses

Marriage licenses issued during the past week through the office of Hancock County Circuit Clerk Lamar Otis include that of Mr. Bobby Eugene Stephens of Paint Rock, Ala., and Mrs. Helen Lorenze Deagrasias of Lakeshore, Miss.

Dear Patsy:

Just had to write you to tell you about the big bargain I got at Millie's Mad Muney Shop on Ulman Avenue. Had a big date Saturday night--had to have a new dress--low on money-between paydays--"Would You Believe?" I bought a Name Brand dress at Mad Muney for only $7.00.

Also needed my hair styled, got this done too, all under one roof--It's Great! Millie's has a Beauty Shop!

Those people at Mad Muney are so nice, the dress I bought was a little long, you know how short I am, so I came up with the big idea of shortening the dress while under the dryer, they furnished me with needle and thread--and pressed the dress for me too--How nice can you get?

All of this service was great, as I was short on time. Had to work Saturday besides--All I had to do after my hair was combed, was don my dress--I was ready to go--Had a great time--Write you next week - MEG

Complaints of oyster growers have increased greatly during the past two months, Hoffpauier said, and it has become necessary to step up enforcement activities in order to prevent the source of livelihood for oyster growers.

No comment was given as to what would happen at the meeting between Mr. Jones and the commission.

Sam Meyers made his first fishing trip after his operation, last week. Don't know how he made out. But the fish were won't.

Joe Conn, our going buddy, is back in his after snacking. He's back playing his usual good game.

D.W. Edgington, also of Long Beach, fishes but likes riding his motorcycle best. Captain of those motorcycle tires, buddy.

Met an old friend of ours, Guy Hanson and his son Guy Jr., of Pennsylvania. Guy Sr. is a native of Pass Christian, but has gone yankee. He also resides up north now.

Henry Cappon, Jr., visited his parents last week. Henry Jr. is in the Marines and his return to Waveland. He is a pilot and coach of the Waveland football team.

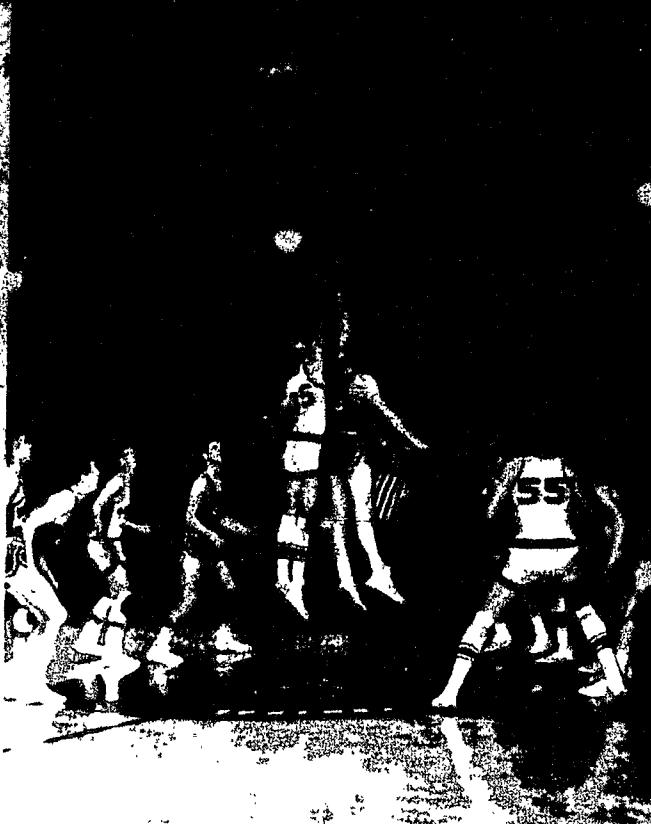

Eddie Wentzel of Biloxi says his feet are itching to get in the water after soft crabs and flounders. Eddie is also good with a cast net. He loves to eat those good old mullets. Won't be long now, buddy.

Received a clipping from a Houston, Texas newspaper showing a fishing column written by my brother Bailey Elliott. Bailey, like myself is a hobbyist operator, writer, editor, fisherman and hunter. We learned how to fish from our mother when just young squirties. Haven't seen him in over 40 years yet his home is in Houston. Maybe we can get together soon, partner.

Blaine Bennett, newcomer to Bay St. Louis expects to catch up on his fishing. A hobbyist follows page called "Catahoula Cur". He claims they can be trained to do most any kind of hunting.

A warning has been given about illegal taking of oysters by Clark M. Hoffpauier, the new director of the Louisiana Wildlife and Fisheries Commission, warned Tuesday that the taking of oysters from private leases is unlawful under existing state laws pertaining to the life and fisheries resources.

SPORTSMAN OF THE WEEK

RED REINKE is one of our best sportsmen. Red played softball, flyfished and is now a golfer of renown. His words were "golfing is the best sport of them all, I think". Fishing and other sports are too much work."

Saw Menou and Donald Arceneaux for the first time in ages. They were staying at the Ramada Motel to attend the wedding of Paulette Bernheim Sunday. Both boys enjoy hunting and fishing. They hail from Lafayette and New Orleans and were boy scouts under me years ago. They had uncounted grandchildren of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Arceneaux with them.

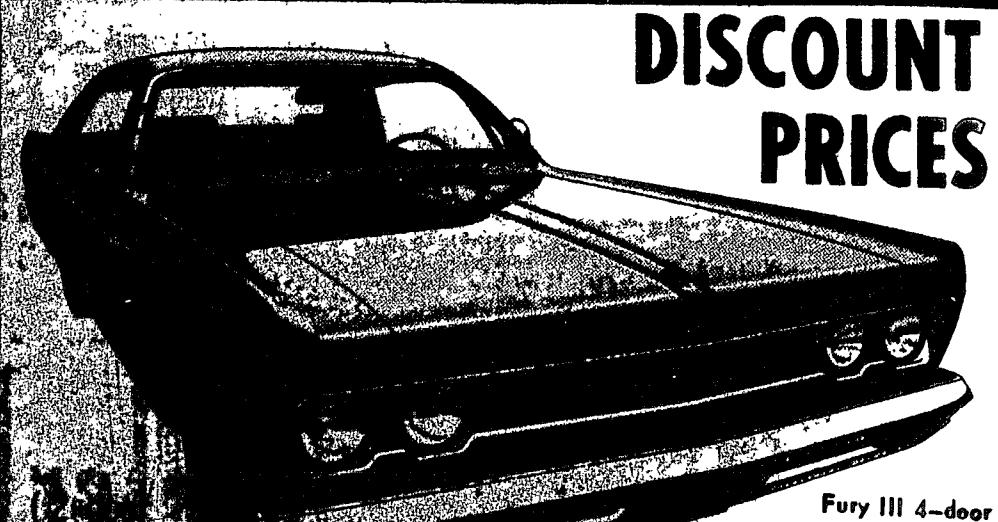

Ree Elliott a golfer, etc. took the big plunge last week. Ree was married last week. He attends Ole Miss and of course the new Missus will attend with him.

A Sea Scout Ship No. 368 has been organized at Waveland. Sea Scouting is a wonderful organization for boys. They need the help of everyone. Be a good scout and do your part. They have a ship to keep up.

Plant Pine Trees in Parking Lot

In a gesture of cooperation with the Bay-Waveland Garden Club's efforts to beautify the community, last week Sam Whitfield, local timber and pulpwood dealer, donated approximately seventy-five pine seedlings for edging the new parking lot on Beach Blvd. in the mid-town business section.

On Saturday Mr. Whitfield and his son, W. B. Whitfield, planted the trees across the back and down the north side and Ricky Paige of the Hawks, who fouled out had 10.

Rex Williams also led the visitors in scoring with 25 points, and his brother Tommy, with 13 points, was the only other Sunrall player to score in double figures.

The victory was the 17th to go with five defeats for the Hawks, who will resume action Tuesday night on their home court against the Gulfport Commodores.

Tuesday's contest will be the final regular season home game of 1968 for the Hawks.
